VIDYA PARAMPARA

Vidya Parampara is a community-driven and volunteer-supported organization headed by Smt. Varsha Ramesh.

A Sanskrit scholar, trained in Advaita and Srividya, she conducts classes on sacred texts and stotrams such as Soundarya Lahari, Bhagavad Gita, Ramayanam and many more. These classes held in English, help students not only learn chanting, but also deeply understand the detailed meanings, stories, philosophy and timeless values embedded in our Sanatana Dharma.

A large number of children and adults from across the world regularly attend these live sessions, which play an important role in shaping character, nurturing devotion and strengthening our connection to our spiritual heritage.

In July 2021, we started the Vidya Parampara YouTube channel with the aim of sharing this precious knowledge with the younger generation and making our traditional teachings accessible to all. Today, the channel has grown to include more than 700 videos, covering over 12 complete learning series with detailed chanting guides, meanings, explanations, and stories. In addition, we regularly share standalone stotram videos, devotional content, and special presentations. By Bhagavan's grace and the support of our well-wishers, the channel has crossed over a million views and has subscribers from many parts of the world.

Do subscribe to the channel and follow us on Instagram to know more about our activities and classes.
